Minutes

Prior to meeting being called to order, incoming Secretary Will Mills was appointed as Secretary for this meeting due to current Secretary Carolyn Roof being incapable of writing with her surgically repaired arm.

The March 21 monthly meeting of the JPRPC was called to order by President Chance Clanahan, at the Paducah Shooter's Supply Community Building at 6:25pm.

Minutes: Motion I: Dave Finke moved that the February minutes be approved as printed in the newsletter. Seconded and approved.

Financial Report: Treasurer Gary Lambert distributed the financial report. Checking account balance was $5,599.73. There were $6,895 deposited from DUES. Total income was $7,505.

CONTINUING BUSINESS:

There was no continuing business to discuss.

NEW BUSINESS:

New Membership: Dave Finke recommended the following for Membership: Kevin Gorline, Mike Williams, Justin Phillips, Howard Preston King, Derek DeVita, and James L. Berry. The recommendation of the committee was approved. Dave reported that there are 234 of the 410 members paid. There are 21 new members year to date including the 6 approved this evening.

Club Lease: Chance Clanahan announced to the members in attendance that our leaseholder, McCutchen Farms will not be renewing our lease at the end of this agreement which expires January 2017. To answer any questions from the membership Mr. Lynn McCutchen was given the floor. General discussion was had regarding the plans McCutchen Farms has for the future of the pistol and rifle range. Mr. McCutchen explained that there are several ideas being considered about what improvements will be made once the range is under the control of a new corporations that will be formed to manage the ranges. Below are a few of the details that were presteted by Mr. McCutchen.

- Memebership to the new range will be between $50-$100
- The new corporation welcomes the club to be a part of the new entity
- The new entity will allow club matches to continue
- There are plans for construction of new buildings on the property for a Pro Shop and possibly a Class Room
- All dues will be paid to the new McCutchen corporation

It was determined that the club officers would meet the following Monday to discuss options for the club, to be later voted on by the club in light of this news. Meeting to be held the following Monday.

Mr. Richard Roof suggested the options that were developed in the officer's meeting be voted on by a committee.

Installation of Officers: 2016 Officers were installed via oath by Mr. Roof.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:35pm
