Paducah, KY 42001

Nov. 19 meeting, 6:30pm

Bryant Law Firm - Legalities of self-defense & use of deadly force

President Ken Stanly called the October 15 monthly meeting to order at 6:30 pm.

Ed McManus, E-911 Director presented the program on what E-911 functions are and the upgrades that are being made to better improve the service.

Minutes:

MOTION I: Glen Newtown moved to accept the September 17 Minutes as published. Seconded and approved.

Financial Report: Richard Roof review the income and expenditures. The month finished in the black. There was discussion as to the recent Kentucky Sales Tax legislation that applies sales tax to non-profits on everything from dues, donations and fees. (See separate article in this newsletter).

MOTION II: Glen Newtown moved to accept the Report. Seconded and approved.

Continuing Business:

Hunter Sight-in: Mike Turner reported that the Sight-in would be October 27-28, Saturday and Sunday, October 27-28, 9-5 on Saturday and 9-4 on Sunday. Saturday is the same day as Shooters Supply's Hunters Night Out. Glen will be working the Public Range and said that shooters who had just bought rifles from Shooters Supply must shoot on the Public Range.

Mike will contact West Kentucky News requesting publication of information. Carolyn Roof has contacted West Kentucky Star (online newspaper) and will contact weeklies in the area. The $10 fee is for unlimited rifles sighted in.

Match Directors: Directors are asked to get their match dates in to Ken Stanly before the December meeting in order to get the dates cleaned with Lynn McCutchen and to send to CMP and NRA.

Membership: Glen recommended Dr. Charles Badger for membership. Seconded and approved. Lewis Beans, former member, has reapplied for membership.

Nominating Committee: Robert Cantrell and Mike Turner volunteered to serve on the committee. The slate of officers will be announced at the November meeting with election at the annual business meeting and pot luck December 10. For recommendations and to volunteer for a position contact Robert: 270-210-6742 or Mike: 270-444-8671.

Annual Business and Pot Luck Meeting: The Club will meet Monday, December 10 (week before the normal meeting), 6:30pm at Olivet Baptist Church. The Club will provide Backwoods BBQ, buns and sauces, potato casserole and baked beans. Members are encouraged to bring salads and desserts.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 8:00

Self Defense & Lethal Force Law

This program, presented by an attorney from the Bryant Law Center, contains critical legal advice for Club members who consider the implications of the use of lethal force for self protection at home or elsewhere.

You don't want to miss this unique opportunity to learn of your legal exposure and how to minimize it.

And it not costing you one cent!
